

Housing Resources

The following resources have been compiled as a service to students attending CCV. Any utilization of this list is the sole responsibility of the participant. CCV does not endorse or support the following organizations/individuals; makes no representations, express or implied, as to the accuracy/currency of the information supplied; and holds no responsibility for any outcomes stemming from this information. Use of this information is voluntary and at your own risk. If you believe any of the information listed to be inaccurate or in violation of CCV policies, please contact a CCV staff member.

Burlington Apartments.net

<http://www.burlingtonapartments.net/>

This webpage is dedicated to apartment rentals in Chittenden county. If you are looking for an apartment, this site has regularly updated listings as well as other tenant resources such as cosign applications and information on local utilities.

Seven Days Classifieds

<http://www.7dspot.com/7c/>

Seven Days is a free weekly Vermont newspaper that includes classified listings as well as local news articles and features. In the "B" section, there are listings for apartments for rent and roommates needed, in addition to a help wanted section and regional activities schedule. You can pick up a copy all around town or view the entire publication online.

Craig's List – Vermont

<http://burlington.craigslist.org/>

Craig's List is essentially a classified section of a newspaper, put on the internet and expanded to include as many locales as possible. Check out the "Housing" section for information on apartments, sublets, and more.

Burlington Free Press Classifieds

<http://www.freepressclassified.com/>

The Burlington Free Press is Burlington and Northern Vermont's regional daily newspaper. The Free Press Classified listings include information on homes, apartments, and much more.

Local Bulletin Boards

Many bulletin boards are spread around the downtown area of Burlington and get updated fairly often. The postings on the boards generally have more to do with local culture and happenings than with housing, but occasionally an apartment for rent or a roommate wanted sheet is displayed. Here are the locations of a few:

Main Street (downtown Burlington)
South Winooski Street (downtown Burlington)
CCV Hallways
City Market

Other Websites

Below are just some of the many sites that are set up to help one find a space to live (in no particular order). Most will have a fairly self-explanatory search function that will allow you to specify your wants and needs.

campusrent.com	forrent.com	roommates.com
rentalsonline.com	sublet.com	roomyou.com
campusroommates.com	rent.com	apartments.com
rentals.com	burlingtonrent.com

Updated: 6/16/08